

HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
LAW ENFORCEMENT / DETENTION
APPLICANT
CJBAT / FBAT REQUIREMENTS

Effective April 18, 2008, all Law Enforcement and Detention applicants will be required to provide proof of having passed the CJBAT / FBAT exam prior to the start of the Civil Service application process. Minimum passing scores are 60% for the LEBAT (Law Enforcement) and 67% for the COBAT (Detention/Corrections). The applicant will be responsible for identifying a certified CJBAT / FBAT testing facility, enroll and receive a passing score in order to apply. The cost of the test will be incurred by the applicant. The test provider will provide the prospective applicant with the results of the test, which would then be delivered by the applicant to Hillsborough County Civil Service to initiate formal application.

Per the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, the FBAT Department is no longer conducting out of state testing. Only remote in-state testing is being conducted. Any inquiries should be directed to the Criminal Justice Training & Standards Division at the Florida Department of Law Enforcement by calling (850) 410-8600.
